WHY BATTLING BISHOPS?

The nickname “The Battling Bishops” dates to 1925; before then Ohio Wesleyan University’s teams were simply known as “The Red and Black,” or sometimes as “The Methodists.” Ohio Wesleyan is affiliated with the United Methodist Church, and long has produced many of its bishops.

By April, 1925, according to that issue of the Alumni Magazine, the present name had finally been derived. “Ohio sports writers have been at a loss,” the magazine reported. “There are countless colleges throughout the country claiming red and black as their colors, and 14 Methodist colleges in Ohio alone.” Pi Delta Epsilon journalism fraternity therefore sponsored a contest, and the winning nickname, “The Battling Bishops,” was “placed before the sports writers of the state as the teams’ official title.” Senior Harold Thomas of Lima submitted the winning entry.

The new nickname must have provided inspiration. The 1925 football team, under George Gauthier, “The Little Giant,” went 7-1-1. Its only loss came to Ohio State by a 10-3 score, and it tied Syracuse, 3-3, en route to winning the Ohio Conference championship.

ABOUT THE NCAC

Ohio Wesleyan University is a charter member of the North Coast Athletic Conference, which began competition in the 1984-85 academic year. Other charter members are Allegheny College, Case Western Reserve University, Denison University, Kenyon College, Oberlin College and the College of Wooster. Wittenberg University joined the NCAC in 1988, Earlham College joined in 1988 and remains an affiliate member in field hockey, Wabash College joined in 1998, DePauw University joined in 2010, and John Carroll University joined in 2024 and begins competition in the 2025-26 academic year.

The NCAC's 9 members believe academic and athletic excellence can co-exist, with no undue overemphasis on athletics. They also believe the principle of balance is important in athletic programs at the Division III level, with no "major" or "minor" sports in comparison with any other, but all equally worthwhile. Equity for both men's and women's sports is a founding and standard principle. The NCAC's 23 championship sports includes 11 for men and 12 for women, the latter figure among the most offered by any Division III conference. When at least 5 Conference institutions sponsor a varsity sport, the NCAC conducts championship play and honors the champion.

During the NCAC's 41 years of competition, the league has established itself as one of the most competitive in the nation. A total of 28 teams in 18 sports and individuals in 10 additional sports — all 23 sports in total — and all 9 member institutions were represented in national competition during the 2023-24 academic year. In addition, 209 student-athletes from around the league earned All-America and/or Academic All-America® honors. NCAC teams have won 74 NCAA Division III championships during the conference's 41 years of competition.

Ohio Wesleyan President Rock Jones and Denison President Dale Knobel display the 2008-09 NCAC All-Sports Trophy. Ohio Wesleyan and Denison finished in a dead heat in the 2008-09 all-sports race, marking the first all-sports tie in conference history.

BISHOP FOOTBALL TIMELINE

1890

After a winter of preparation, the Ohio Wesleyan football team plays its first intercollegiate contest. Ohio State tops Ohio Wesleyan, 20-14, on Saturday, May 3. The team played 3 games that fall.

The Athletics Park (soon to be known as Edwards Field), located where Branch Rickey Arena and Gordon Field House stand today, becomes home of the baseball and football teams. Ohio Wesleyan's first intercollegiate football game was played in the hollow between present-day Phillips Hall and Delaware Run on the eastern edge of campus. The grandstand at the Athletics Park opened on June 7, 1890, and that fall, a fence was erected along the south side of the grounds.

1891

Ohio Wesleyan records an undefeated season, shutting out Denison and Miami en route to a 4-0 finish.

1902

Ohio Wesleyan joins Case Tech, Kenyon, Oberlin, Ohio State, and Western Reserve University in forming the Ohio Athletic Conference.

1907

Branch Rickey, who returns to his alma mater as head coach and athletic director, and halfback James Rike, who rushed for 1016 yards in 1906, lead Methodists to 7-3 record.

1909

Another Hall of Famer, Lynn St. John, becomes the head coach. Under St. John, Ohio Wesleyan surrenders a total of only 56 points during the 1910-11 seasons but records back-to-back 6-3 finishes.

1921

George Gauthier, the "Little Giant," takes over as head coach.

1922

Ohio Wesleyan purchases the bleachers from Ohio Field, Ohio State's former home field, raising the seating capacity at Edwards Field to approximately 7000.

Ohio Wesleyan provides opposition for the first game in Ohio Stadium. Ohio State wins, 5-0, holding the Bishops scoreless after a pair of first downs inside the Buckeye 20-yard line late in the fourth quarter. Ohio Wesleyan goes on to the OAC title with a 7-0 league mark. The Red and Black finish 8-1 overall, losing only to Ohio State.

1923

Ohio Wesleyan finishes 6-2, with losses to Ohio State and Colgate, and is undefeated in the OAC.

1925

Officially christened "The Battling Bishops," Gauthier's squad has only a loss to Ohio State and a tie with Syracuse to blemish a 7-1-1 season. The Bishops win the OAC championship.

1928

Ohio Wesleyan joins Cincinnati, Denison, Miami University, Ohio University, and Wittenberg in breaking away from the OAC to compete solely in the Buckeye Conference. The 6 institutions began competing as the Buckeye in 1925 while remaining members of the OAC.

Ohio Wesleyan records one of its most widely-heralded victories, beating Michigan, 17-7, in Ann Arbor. It would be the last meeting between the schools. The Bishops win their second Buckeye crown in 3 years.

1929

Selby Field, designed by Gauthier, opens in style as the Bishops top Marietta, 52-0, before a crowd of 9000.

1934

Quarterback John Turley, a Delaware native, is a first-team Little All-America selection by Associated Press and becomes the Bishops' first football All-American. Turley goes on to play for 2 seasons with the Pittsburgh Pirates of the fledgling National Football League.

1938

The Buckeye Conference disbands on Dec. 10, effective at the end of the 1938-39 academic year. At the time of its demise, the Buckeye Conference included Ohio Wesleyan, Dayton, Marshall, Miami University and Ohio University, along with probationary members Western Michigan and Xavier.

1943

Tackle Dick Drake is drafted in the 28th round by the NFL's New York Giants. He is the first Ohio Wesleyan player to be selected in the draft, which was instituted in 1936.

1946

Gauthier steps down as Ohio Wesleyan coach with a career record of 121-98-15 and an unsurpassed 4 league championships.

2025 Ohio Wesleyan Football

1947

Independent since the demise of the Buckeye Conference nearly a decade earlier, Ohio Wesleyan is readmitted into the OAC. Glenn Fraser takes over as head coach, starting with a string of 8 straight winning seasons.

1951

After 3 near-misses, the Bishops win Fraser's first OAC title. End Dale Bruce sets an NCAA small-college record by piling up 255 receiving yards vs. Case.

1953

Ohio Wesleyan finishes 8-0-1, its first undefeated season during the modern era, and wins its second OAC crown in 3 years. A tie with Wabash prevents a perfect season. The league crown would be the Bishops' last under Fraser despite 3 more seasons with 2 or fewer losses.

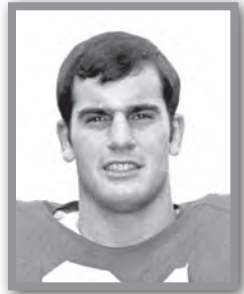

1964

Jack Fouts '48 takes over as head coach.

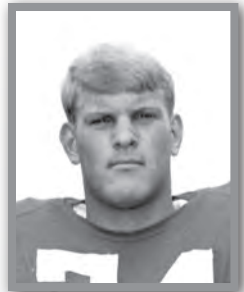

1967

The Bishops' second undefeated season of the century results in Fouts' first OAC title. Ohio Wesleyan finishes 8-0-1. The only blemish on the season was a 14-14 tie at Albion in the opener, a game that saw the Bishops erase a 14-0 deficit but miss potential game-winning field goal attempts on their last 2 possessions. Ohio Wesleyan is considered for the Grantland Rice Bowl, then the College Division Midwest Regional title game, but Ball State instead received the invitation to face Eastern Kentucky.

1969

Halfback Rich Henley leads the OAC in rushing with 1036 yards, becoming only the second Bishop to crack the 1000-yard plateau.

1970

Defensive tackle Tom Truesdell is drafted in the 12th round by the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals. Truesdell is cut during the Bengals' training camp but gets a tryout with the Cleveland Browns in 1971.

1971

Ohio Wesleyan wins the OAC crown and is invited to the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl, then the College Division Western Regional title game. Samford (Alabama) won the game, 20-10, but forfeited the victory after it was discovered ineligible players were used.

1981

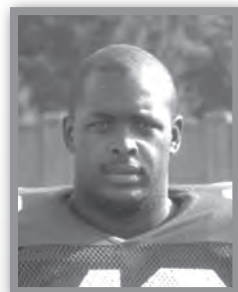

Down 42-0 at halftime at Denison, Fouts unleashes quarterback Mike Wallace, who goes on to set 8 NCAA All-Divisions passing and total offense records. Wide receiver Ric Kinnan, who missed the first quarter while taking the LSAT, still manages to haul in 12 passes. Denison holds on to win 49-34.

1984

Ohio Wesleyan leaves the OAC to join Allegheny, Case Reserve, Denison, Kenyon, Oberlin, and Wooster in founding the North Coast Athletic Conference.

1987

Mike Hollway becomes the Ohio Wesleyan head coach.

1988

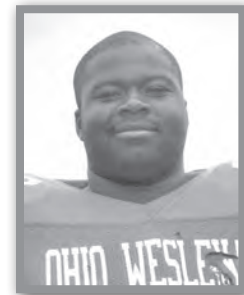

Ohio Wesleyan posts a 6-4 record, the Bishops' best finish since the Stagg Bowl season of 1971. Fullback Kevin Sims leads the NCAC in rushing with 1010 yards, becoming the third Bishop to pass the 1000-yard mark.

1989

The Bishops win their first NCAC title. Ohio Wesleyan finishes with an 8-1-1 mark, tying the school record for regular-season victories, and is ranked among the top 20 in NCAA Division III for the first time.

1990

The Bishops' 9-1 mark sets a school record for regular-season wins. Ohio Wesleyan leads the nation in rushing defense and is ranked among the top 20 in the Division III polls for the second straight year. The Bishops' only loss was a last-minute, 14-10 decision to conference rival and eventual national champion Allegheny.

1991

Despite a fine 8-2 record, the Bishops finish third in the rugged NCAC. Ohio Wesleyan's defense again is among the nation's elite, ranking third in Division III against the rush. Nose guard Keith Rucker, who spearheaded the Bishop defense, becomes the first Division III player invited to compete in the Hula Bowl all-star game and goes on to win a starting berth with the NFL's Phoenix Cardinals.

1992

Ohio Wesleyan opens the season with 8 straight wins, matching the longest session-opening streak in school history, but finishes 8-2 after a last-second loss to Allegheny and a tough NCAC title showdown at Wittenberg.

1996

Fullback J.R. Kidd finishes with 1000 yards, becoming the fourth Bishop player to reach that figure. Kidd was one of 3 Bishops who received GTE Academic All-America® laurels that season, joining linebacker Craig Anderson and defensive end Josh Sanders.

1999

End Ike Reid and safety Mike Fowler anchor a Bishop defense that leads the NCAC in total and scoring defense and finishes a close second in rushing defense. The Bishops finish 8-2, tying for second place in the conference standings. Reid would go on to sign a free-agent contract with the NFL's Indianapolis Colts.

2001

Led by tailback Matt Capone, who compiled 2016 all-purpose yards, the Bishops rank second in the nation in rushing and fourth in total offense on the way to a 9-1 season. The Bishops set a school record by scoring 418 points.

2004

After an 0-4 start that includes 3 losses by a total of 7 points, Ohio Wesleyan reels off 5 straight wins to put itself in position to play for the NCAC championship and an NCAA Division III playoff bid. The 5-game winning streak includes fourth-quarter, come-from-behind decisions over defending conference champion Allegheny and traditional rival Wittenberg.

2005

End Cisco Clervoix is named NCAC Defensive Player of the Year, the first time since 1991 that an Ohio Wesleyan player received that honor. The Bishops finish 7-3, with 2 of the losses coming to teams which posted 10-0 regular-season records and advanced to the NCAA Division III playoffs.

2006

The Bishops defeat Denison, 35-10, in Granville. The win is the 122nd at Ohio Wesleyan for head coach Mike Hollway, the most by any Battling Bishop football coach.

2010

Ohio Wesleyan faces Wooster in the first night game to be played at Selby Field. Wooster wins, 22-13.

Mason Espinosa nails down the starting quarterback spot in midseason and rolls up more than 1500 passing yards during the final 5 games on the way to becoming the first Ohio Wesleyan player to throw for 2000 yards in a season.

2012

Quarterback Mason Espinosa is named the NCAC's Offensive Player of the Year, the first time since 1981 that an Ohio Wesleyan player was so honored. The Bishops finish 9-1 and share the NCAC championship, Ohio Wesleyan's first conference title since 1989. First-year head coach Tom Watts is named NCAC Coach of the Year and AFCA Region 2 Coach of the Year.

2022

Wide receiver Josh Hurst is named the NCAC's Newcomer of the Year, the first time that an Ohio Wesleyan player received that honor.

*The Ohio Athletic Conference champion was determined by the highest regular-season winning percentage through the 1971 season. From 1972-83, the OAC champion was determined by a playoff game between the Blue and Red Division champions.

The Buckeye Conference champion was determined by the highest regular season winning percentage.

 The North Coast Athletic Conference champion was determined by the highest regular season winning percentage.

The 2012 football team huddles after defeating Wooster, 36-12, to clinch a share of the North Coast Athletic Conference championship.

The 1902 football team set a school record by winning its first 7 games. The following spring, Branch Rickey (second from right, back row) and Charles Thomas (at right, third row), also the coach and catcher of the Ohio Wesleyan baseball team, would be involved in an incident at the Oliver Hotel in South Bend, Ind., that would inspire Rickey's signing Jackie Robinson to a contract with Major League Baseball's Brooklyn Dodgers more than 40 years later.
