WHY BATTLING BISHOPS?

The nickname “The Battling Bishops” dates to 1925; before then Ohio Wesleyan University’s teams were simply known as “The Red and Black,” or sometimes as “The Methodists.” Ohio Wesleyan is affiliated with the United Methodist Church, and long has produced many of its bishops.

By April, 1925, according to that issue of the Alumni Magazine, the present name had finally been derived. “Ohio sports writers have been at a loss,” the magazine reported. “There are countless colleges throughout the country claiming red and black as their colors, and 14 Methodist colleges in Ohio alone.” Pi Delta Epsilon journalism fraternity therefore sponsored a contest, and the winning nickname, “The Battling Bishops,” was “placed before the sports writers of the state as the teams’ official title.” Senior Harold Thomas of Lima submitted the winning entry.

The new nickname must have provided inspiration. The 1925 football team, under George Gauthier, “The Little Giant,” went 7-1-1. Its only loss came to Ohio State by a 10-3 score, and it tied Syracuse, 3-3, en route to winning the Ohio Conference championship.

ABOUT THE NCAC

Ohio Wesleyan University is a charter member of the North Coast Athletic Conference, which began competition in the 1984-85 academic year. Other charter members are Allegheny College, Case Western Reserve University, Denison University, Kenyon College, Oberlin College and the College of Wooster. Wittenberg University joined the NCAC in 1988, Earlham College joined in 1988 and remains an affiliate member in field hockey, Hiram College and Wabash College joined the NCAC in 1998, and DePauw University joined the NCAC in 2010.

The NCAC's 9 members believe academic and athletic excellence can co-exist, with no undue overemphasis on athletics. They also believe the principle of balance is important in athletic programs at the Division III level, with no "major" or "minor" sports in comparison with any other, but all equally worthwhile. Equity for both men's and women's sports is a founding and standard principle. The NCAC's 23 championship sports includes 11 for men and 12 for women, the latter figure leading all Division III conferences in the country. When at least 5 Conference institutions sponsor a varsity sport, the NCAC conducts championship play and honors the champion.

During the NCAC's 39 years of competition, the league has established itself as one of the most competitive in the nation. A total of 23 teams in 17 sports and individuals in 6 additional sports, including all 9 member institutions, were represented in national competition during the 2022-23 academic year. In addition, 177 student-athletes from around the league earned All-America and/or Academic All-America® honors. NCAC teams have won 71 NCAA Division III championships during the conference's 39 years of competition.

Ohio Wesleyan President Rock Jones and Denison President Dale Knobel display the 2008-09 NCAC All-Sports Trophy. Ohio Wesleyan and Denison finished in a dead heat in the 2008-09 all-sports race, marking the first all-sports tie in conference history.

*OAC records date back to the 1923-24 season. The OAC added men's basketball as a conference sport in April 1903, with competition beginning in the 1903-04 season.

The 6 schools that formed the Buckeye Athletic Association in 1925 played a double round-robin against one another and are not counted in the OAC standings during the 1925-26, 1926-27, and 1927-28 seasons. The 6 schools left the OAC in 1928 to compete in the Buckeye Conference.

The NCAC championship was determined by regular-season record during the 1984-89 seasons and again beginning with the 1991-92 season. The tournament champion was recognized as the NCAC champion during the 1989-90 and 1990-91 seasons.

A NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP REVISITED

You will not soon find Scott Tedder's name on the front of any supermarket tabloids, making predictions for the coming year.

But as far as Ohio Wesleyan fans are concerned, Tedder ranks right up there with Kreskin, Jeane Dixon and all the rest.

At the team's 1987 postseason banquet, Tedder promised his teammates they would win the national championship the next year. "I was half-joking," Tedder said later. "But The Delaware Gazette had it in big headlines: 'Tedder promises national championship.'"

Tedder opened the 1987-88 season with a pair of 34-point performances in leading the Bishops to a title in the Kiwanis Tournament. The big headlines started coming after the Bishops' next game, a 122-115 win at Division I Ohio University, where Tedder scored a career-high 50 points. The headlines kept coming after a narrow 98-95 loss to Division I Morehead State. Tedder and Lee Rowlinson each scored 34 points in the contest, with Tedder becoming Ohio Wesleyan's all-time leading scorer, passing the 1905 points scored by Barry Clemens '65, an 11-year NBA veteran.

After an overtime loss to Allegheny to open North Coast Athletic Conference play, Ohio Wesleyan was unstoppable, reeling off wins in its final 11 league games for a share of the regular-season crown. Ohio Wesleyan then claimed the NCAC tournament championship with wins over Kenyon and Allegheny.

With a 22-5 record, Ohio Wesleyan was not only going to its first NCAA Division III tournament, but was selected to host the Great Lakes Regional. Ohio Northern, seeded fourth despite giving the Bishops 2 tough games during the season, was Ohio Wesleyan's first foe. Rowlinson scored 16 straight points during the second half to lead the Bishops to a 77-70 win.

Then it was Tedder's turn, scoring 29 points, including the game-winning 3-point bucket with :02 left in the second overtime, for a nailbiting 110-107 win over Hope. Tedder earned the regional's Most Outstanding Player award, but it was reserve baseline Mark Slayman who sank 2 free throws that sent the game into overtime.

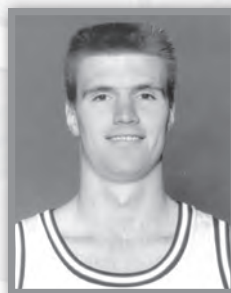

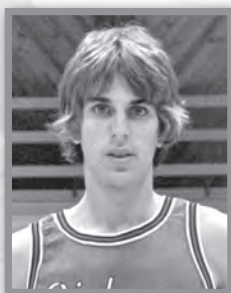

At his best in the big games, Tedder was brilliant again in a 106-103 quarterfinal win over Illinois Wesleyan. He finished the game with 39 points.

In Grand Rapids, Mich., Tedder and Rowlinson scored 35 of their 64 points in the second half as the Bishops pulled away from Nebraska Wesleyan for an 87-71 semifinal win.

Tedder then led the Bishops with 27 points in the championship game, a 92-70 verdict over 2-time champion Scranton. He was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Final Four, joining Rowlinson on the all-tournament team. Rowlinson was a second-team All-America pick and was the NCAC's Player of the Year, while Tedder went on to earn Division III Player of the Year honors. Tedder didn't quite sweep postseason honors — he just missed breaking the Division III tournament scoring record — but when was the last time Kreskin had that good a season?

President Ronald Reagan and U.S. Representative John Kasich welcome Ohio Wesleyan president David Warren, Mike Smith and Lee Rowlinson to the White House. The Bishops' visit to the White House was the first ever by an NCAA Division III team.

Head coach Frank Shannon and the 1977-78 Bishops accept the inaugural Kiwanis Tournament championship trophy.

FRANK SHANNON INVITATIONAL

He took the Ohio Wesleyan basketball reins in 1958 and promptly ended a 5-year span of losing seasons. Within 4 years he had been elected Ohio College Coach of the Year, and before he retired in 1979 after 21 seasons, he had won more games than any other coach in Battling Bishop history. He is Frank Shannon: teacher, winner, gentleman, friend.

The Parkersburg, W.Va., native spent 39 years coaching basketball at virtually every level, posting more than 800 career victories. He also stood out as a player, twice earning all-conference honors at Wittenberg University, from which he received his B.S. degree in 1940. He went on to earn his M.A. degree from the University of Alabama in 1952.

Shannon coached at 5 Ohio high schools en route to Ohio Wesleyan, compiling a 194-67 record and turning out 7 district championship teams. In 1958, he organized and ran the first North-South All-Star game for Ohio high school cagers.

Drafted as an army private in 1941, he distinguished himself in the service as well. Discharged as a major, he served in Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters in the Southwest Pacific.

He also was among the pioneers of professional basketball, serving as the Youngstown Bears' player-coach in 1947, the first year of the National Basketball League, forerunner of the National Basketball Association.

At Ohio Wesleyan, Shannon collected 214 victories, ranking sixth in all-time wins among Ohio Athletic Conference coaches. His 1961-62 team, which prompted his Coach of the Year citation, finished 21-3, still the best mark in the Ohio Wesleyan record books for winning percentage. In a 5-year span from 1960-65, the Bishops fashioned an 86-31 record.

Among the products of Shannon's tenure were Barry Clemens '65, who went on to play 11 years in the NBA Shannon helped found; and Tate Locke '59, later to coach the Buffalo Braves of that league. While at Tecumseh High School, Shannon coached Wayne Embry, who went on to NBA stardom both as a player and an executive.

Shannon also coached the Ohio Wesleyan men's tennis team for 6 years, winning 5 consecutive OAC titles, taught physical education and assisted with football scouting and lacrosse. A member of both Ohio Wesleyan's and Wittenberg's Athletic Halls of Fame, he continued to reside in Delaware until his death in 2005.

Ross Rybarczyk led the Bishops in assists for 4 consecutive seasons, establishing himself as one of the nation's most efficient point guards.

BISHOP ALL-AMERICANS

JUD MILLHON
1951 1st-team
All-America

Millhon had a senior season that stacks up against anyone's, even more than 60 years later. He scored a school-record 556 points and grabbed 351 rebounds, and his averages of 25.3 points and 16.0 rebounds per game ranked fifth and fourth respectively among small-college players. His 489 rebounds during his sophomore season established school and Ohio Athletic Conference records that still stand. Millhon finished his Bishop career as the OAC's all-time leader in scoring and rebounding. His point total was still recognized as the OAC's 3-year career record when OWU left the league in 1984.

BARRY CLEMENS
1964-65 AP Little
All-America

Clemens averaged 23.0 points and 14.7 rebounds his senior year, ranking second and third respectively in the OAC. He won the league's Dick Gregory MVP award, the only Bishop ever to win that honor, and was a second-team All-America selection after earning third-team All-America laurels as a junior. He ended his career as both Ohio Wesleyan's and the OAC's all-time leading scorer with 1905 points. His career total of 1230 rebounds ranked fifth on the OAC's all-time list and third on the Bishop list. Clemens went on to play 11 years in the NBA.

SCOTT TEDDER
1987-88 1st-team All-America

Tedder capped his Bishop career by becoming the first Ohio Wesleyan athlete to twice earn first-team All-America honors. His career total of 2501 points made him the North Coast Athletic Conference's all-time leading scorer and ranked fifth on the Division III all-time list. He was the NCAA Division III Player of the Year and the Most Outstanding Player of the Division III Final Four as a senior and was twice the NCAC's Player of the Year. He led the league in scoring 3 times and ranked third among Division III scorers as a junior and sixth as a senior. Tedder set virtually every Ohio Wesleyan scoring record except single-game, but he did set the NCAC single-game record with 50 points against Ohio University his senior year. One of Tedder's lesser-known records is that he did not foul out of a collegiate game.

LEE ROWLINSON
1988 2nd-team
All-America

Rowlinson's senior season was the culmination of 4 years of endless self-improvement. A raw 6-6, 160-pounder when he entered Ohio Wesleyan, Rowlinson had blossomed to 6-9, 225 as a junior, when he became a starter and went on to earn first-team all-league honors. As a senior, Rowlinson led the NCAC in rebounding and was second in scoring and field goal percentage and third in free throw percentage. He earned first-team All-NCAC honors for the second straight season and was named the league's Player of the Year. He was named to all-tournament teams in both the Great Lakes Regional and the NCAA Division III Final Four. Rowlinson played 8 years of professional basketball in Luxembourg and Czechoslovakia.

MARK SLAYMAN 1989-90 Academic All-America®

Slayman was a second-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America® selection as a junior, also earning first-team All-North Coast Athletic Conference honors. As a senior, he earned first-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America® laurels and was a second-team pick to both all-district and All-NCAC teams. Slayman led the Bishops in scoring and rebounding as a senior and was the 16th Bishop male to surpass the 1000-point plateau. He majored in economics management and minored in accounting and carried a grade-point average of 3.90.

JOHN CAMILLUS 1998 Academic All-America®

Camillus moved into the starting lineup early in his junior season and soon showed a flair for last-second heroics, drilling the game-winning bucket in 2 overtime wins. Camillus built upon that as a senior, developing into a scorer who would fearlessly drive the lane despite his 6-0 frame. Camillus ranked fifth in the NCAC in scoring, third in free throw percentage, seventh in assists and eighth in field goal percentage en route to first-team All-NCAC honors. He graduated with a 4.0 cumulative GPA with majors in philosophy and pre-law. Camillus was a first-team Academic All-America® choice.
