BATTLING BISHOPS

Ohio Wesleyan University

Founded in 1842, Ohio Wesleyan is a national university with a major international presence. Accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, OWU is a member of the Great Lakes Colleges Association, a consortium of 13 leading independent institutions in Indiana, Michigan, and Ohio.

Ohio Wesleyan has been named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll — the highest federal recognition a school can achieve for service learning and civic engagement — for 6 consecutive years.

Ohio Wesleyan confers the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Fine Arts, and Bachelor of Music degrees. The University also offers combined-degree (3-2) programs in engineering, interdisciplinary and applied science, medical technology, optometry, and physical therapy. Degree programs are offered through 24 academic departments and several interdisciplinary programs. Distinctive features of the academic program include the Arneson Institute for Practical Politics and Public Affairs; the Woltemade Center for Economics, Business and Entrepreneurship; the Sagan National Colloquium, a 4-year Honors Program; and extensive opportunities for independent research, internships, and off-campus study.

Ohio Wesleyan's Travel-Learning options include international travel-learning courses led by faculty to extend classroom experiences in particular courses. Competitive Theory-to-Practice Grants, funded by the University, allow students to participate in independent research, internships, and cultural immersion throughout the world. The University's unique Course Connections provide opportunities for students to study topics of interest over a protracted period of time as they selected a variety of interdisciplinary courses from several academic divisions.

Ohio Wesleyan employs 146 full-time faculty. Nearly 100 percent of the tenure-track faculty hold a Ph.D. or equivalent or are completing work toward the degree. The student-faculty ratio is 11:1.

Ohio Wesleyan currently enrolls about 1750 students, almost equally men and women, from nearly every state and more than 40 countries. The multicultural enrollment total of approximately 16 percent includes U.S. multicultural students and international students.

Diversity, creativity, leadership, and service are emphasized throughout the co-curriculum. Students are active in nearly 100 clubs and organizations, as well as departmental student boards, academic honoraries, music and theatre productions, fraternities and sororities, and an extensive intramural sports program. More than 85 percent of the students are involved in community service projects. Ohio Wesleyan fields 23 varsity athletic teams that compete in the North Coast Athletic Conference.

Ohio Wesleyan comprises a 200-acre campus and 2 wilderness preserves. Eleven of the University's 61 buildings are entered in the National Register of Historic Places. Nearly all students live on campus in a variety of residential facilities.

WHY BATTLING BISHOPS?

The nickname "The Battling Bishops" dates to 1925; before then Ohio Wesleyan University's teams were simply known as "The Red and Black," or sometimes as "The Methodists." Ohio Wesleyan is affiliated with the United Methodist Church, and long has produced many of its bishops.

By April, 1925, according to that issue of the Alumni Magazine, the present name had finally been derived. "Ohio sports writers have been at a loss," the magazine reported. "There are countless colleges throughout the country claiming red and black as their colors, and 14 Methodist colleges in Ohio alone." Pi Delta Epsilon journalism fraternity therefore sponsored a contest, and the winning nickname, "The Battling Bishops," was "placed before the sports writers of the state as the teams' official title." Senior Harold Thomas of Lima submitted the winning entry.

The new nickname must have provided inspiration. The 1925 football team, under George Gauthier, "The Little Giant," went 7-1-1. Its only loss came to Ohio State by a 10-3 score, and it tied Syracuse, 3-3, en route to winning Ohio Conference and Big Six championships.

Ohio Wesleyan and sixth-year head coach Mike Plantholt look to defend their North Coast Athletic Conference championship and make another run into the NCAA Division III playoffs in 2016.

Last year, the Battling Bishops set a school record by winning their first 18 games, swept their NCAC schedule, won the NCAC tournament, and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division III tournament.

"We return some crucial pieces even though we lost 8 starters," Plantholt said. "We are confident that we have some upperclassmen at key positions who can step up and fill roles. We're going to be a team that comes together as the season progresses. We've been very happy with what we've done so far, and the guys know we can come a lot farther."

Senior Marcus Dietz returns on the attack line. Dietz was a sensation in his Bishop debut last year, winning second-team All-America honors and receiving NCAC Player and Newcomer of the Year recognition after compiling 36 goals and 31 assists.

Junior Matt Maier, who scored 12 goals last season; freshman Max Tennant, an all-region pick in high school; and freshman Conor Caffrey, an all-region selection in high school, look to fill out the Bishop attack line.

Senior P.J. Beach also returns, and freshman Jack Jeschke looks to contribute as well.

In the midfield, sophomore Luke Leyden, an honorable mention All-NCAC pick who had 20 goals last season; junior Derek Todd, who scored 11 goals in 2015; and senior Sean Roskamp, who compiled 7 goals and 6 assists; are the top returnees.

Junior Dallas Reed, sophomore Derek Bacchiochi, and freshman Jack Harvey, an all-state pick in high school, will be heard from, along with freshman Steven Hildebrand.

Senior Cooper Del Zotto, a second-team all-conference pick last season, heads up the defensive midfield. Senior George Rice and sophomore Peter Hamblett are back, and freshman Josh Grossman also is in the mix.

Senior Zach Friedman takes over as the Bishops' face-off specialist. Friedman won 69.1 percent of his face-offs last season.

Senior John Griffin, a 3-time All-NCAC choice, is back at the long-stick defensive midfield spot. Sophomore Trent Schulte, who tied a school record with 7 goals by a long-stick player; and classmates Bradford Marcotte and Robert Gossett also return.

Senior Ben Danieli, a first-team All-NCAC selection in 2015, will anchor the close defense.

Junior Jordan Carlson also is a returning starter, and junior Justin Smith, sophomore Aaron Carroll, and freshman Jake Worrell also look to crack the Bishop rotation.

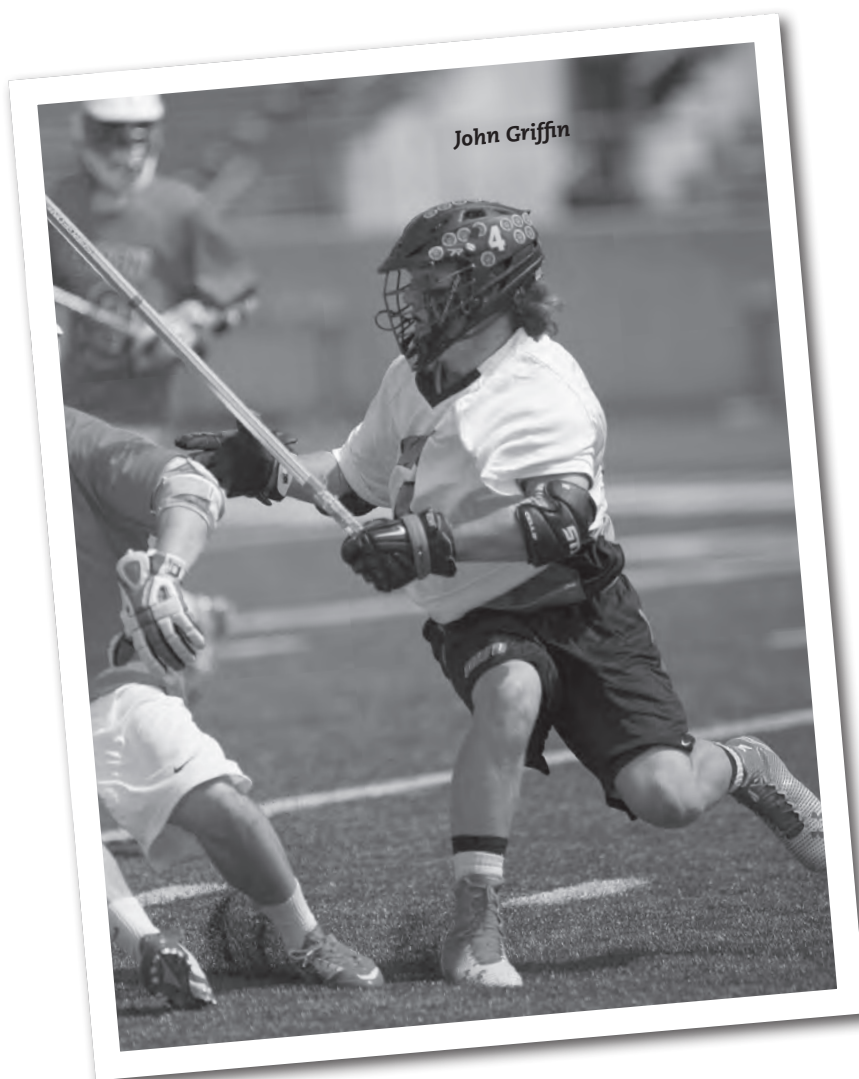

In goal, junior Ben Rigger takes over the starting spot. Sophomores Xander Pacilio and Douglas Collins are ready in reserve, along with freshman Jameson Hill.

Ohio Wesleyan will face a demanding schedule. After opening with a 2015 NCAA Division III playoff team in Augustana, the Bishops visit Otterbein, another 2015 NCAA Division III playoff team.

A trip to Cold Spring Harbor, N.Y., for a date with Plattsburgh State, which made the finals of its conference tournament last season, follows before a home contest against Centre.

The Bishops' spring trip includes contests against 2015 national quarterfinalist Salisbury; Messiah, which made the finals of its conference tournament last season; and Cabrini, another 2015 NCAA Division III playoff team.

The NCAC title chase begins at Oberlin on March 19. Contests against 2014 tournament semifinalists Kenyon and Wittenberg highlight the early going, heading into the annual skirmish with traditional arch-rival Denison on April 16. The regular-season finale will be against Wooster on April 23, with the NCAC tournament the following week.

Coach Mike Plantholt

Mike Plantholt begins his sixth season as head men's lacrosse coach at Ohio Wesleyan University.

Last season, Ohio Wesleyan won its first 18 games, sweeping the North Coast Athletic Conference championship and the NCAC tournament, and advancing to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division III tournament. The Bishops' winning percentage of .947 was the best in school history, while the 18 wins tied the school record for wins in a season. Ohio Wesleyan ranked second nationally in scoring defense (5.79/game) and scoring margin (9.1/game), and tied for fifth in scoring offense (14.89/game). Four players were named to the USILA All-America teams, and 13 received All-NCAC recognition. Plantholt was named NCAC Coach of the Year for the second time.

In 2014, Ohio Wesleyan finished with a 12-4 overall record, finished second in the NCAC championship race, and advanced to the championship game of the NCAC tournament. Ohio Wesleyan ranked eighth nationally in goals-against average (6.19/game) and 19th in scoring margin. Two players were named to the USILA All-America teams, and 11 received All-NCAC citations.

The 2013 Bishops went 13-6, the team's highest win total since the 2000 season. Ohio Wesleyan won the inaugural NCAC tournament and advanced to the NCAA Division III playoffs, where the Bishops hosted their first NCAA tournament game since 1996. The Ohio Wesleyan defense again ranked among the nation's elite, ranking sixth nationally in goals-against average (6.05) and 12th in scoring margin. Two Ohio Wesleyan players received USILA All-America honors, while 12 were named to the All-NCAC teams, with Plantholt receiving NCAC Coach of the Year laurels.

In 2012, Ohio Wesleyan finished with an 11-5 overall record and a berth in the NCAA Division III playoffs. Nine Ohio Wesleyan players were named to the All-NCAC teams.

The 2011 Bishops won a share of the NCAC championship and a berth in the NCAA Division III playoffs. Ohio Wesleyan finished with a 10-4 overall record under Plantholt's tutelage, with the Bishop defense allowing only 97 goals, the team's lowest season total and per-game average (6.9) since 1988. Ohio Wesleyan's efforts were recognized with one USILA All-America selection and 10 All-NCAC choices.

Plantholt came to Ohio Wesleyan from Randolph-Macon College, where he was head coach for 4 years, leading the Yellow Jackets to new heights. In 2008, Randolph-Macon posted a 7-7 record, the program's best in 8 seasons, and made its first-ever appearance in the Old Dominion Athletic Conference tournament. The Yellow Jackets improved upon that the following year, making their first appearance in the USILA Division III rankings in more than a decade, and made a second consecutive appearance in the ODAC tournament. During that season, Randolph-Macon defeated 15th-ranked Denison, a victory ranked by Laxpower.com as the top upset win of the season in Division III in 2009.

In 2010, Randolph-Macon compiled a 7-8 record and made a third straight appearance in the ODAC tournament. In 4 seasons at Randolph-Macon, Plantholt mentored 10 all-conference selections, including the Yellow Jackets' first first-team all-conference honoree since 2004.

Prior to taking the Randolph-Macon position, Plantholt served as an assistant coach at Gettysburg (Pa.) College for 4 seasons. He served as the Bullets' defensive coordinator, overseeing units that led all NCAA Division III teams in scoring defense in 2006 and ranked fourth nationally in 2004 and eighth nationally in 2005. During Plantholt's time on the Gettysburg coaching staff, the Bullets won 3 Centennial Athletic Conference championships and made 3 straight appearances in the NCAA Division III quarterfinals.

Plantholt began his coaching career at Muhlenberg (Pa.) College in 2002, serving as recruiting coordinator for the Mules' first-ever men's lacrosse team.

A 2001 graduate of Gettysburg, Plantholt enjoyed great success on the field. He was named Division III Defenseman of the Year in 2001 after leading the Bullets to their first-ever appearance in the NCAA Division III national championship game. He was a 2-time All-America and 3-time all-conference selection, and capped his collegiate career by being selected to play in the North-South All-Star game.

Plantholt majored in psychology at Gettysburg and earned a Master's in Business Administration degree from Mount St. Mary's (Md.) University in 2007. He is a native of Cockeysville, Md.

NORTH COAST ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

ABOUT THE NCAC

Ohio Wesleyan University is a charter member of the North Coast Athletic Conference, which began competition in the 1984-85 academic year. Other charter members are Allegheny College, Case Western Reserve University, Denison University, Kenyon College, Oberlin College and the College of Wooster. Wittenberg University joined the NCAC in 1988, Earlham College joined in 1988 and remains an affiliate member in field hockey, Hiram College and Wabash College joined the NCAC in 1998, and DePauw University joined the NCAC in 2010.

The NCAC's 10 members believe academic and athletic excellence can co-exist, with no undue overemphasis on athletics. They also believe the principle of balance is important in athletic programs at the Division III level, with no "major" or "minor" sports in comparison with any other, but all equally worthwhile. Equity for both men's and women's sports is a founding and standard principle. The NCAC's 23 championship sports includes 11 for men and 12 for women, the latter figure leading all Division III conferences in the country. When at least 5 Conference institutions sponsor a varsity sport, the NCAC conducts championship play and honors the champion.

During the NCAC's 31 years of competition, the league has established itself as one of the most competitive in the nation. A total of 61 teams in all 23 sports were represented in national competition last year, with one team winning an NCAA Division III championship to raise the conference's 31-year total to 65. In addition, 219 student-athletes from around the league earned All-America and/or Academic All-America® honors.

Ohio Wesleyan President Rock Jones and Denison President Dale Knobel display the 2008-09 NCAC All-Sports Trophy. Ohio Wesleyan and Denison finished in a dead heat in the 2008-09 all-sports race, marking the first all-sports tie in conference history.

2015 IN REVIEW

OHIO WESLEYAN 17, AUGUSTANA 4 Feb. 14 at Columbus

Brendan Bouchard scored 3 goals during a game-opening 6-0 run that started 17th-ranked Ohio Wesleyan on its way to a non-conference win over the Vikings. The game was originally scheduled to be played at Ohio Wesleyan's Selby Stadium, but the forecast for temperatures in the 20s and winds of 25-35 miles per hour forced the contest indoors in Columbus. Bouchard was named NCAC Player of the Week for his efforts.

SCORING LEADERS: Umbach 4-0, Bouchard 3-1.
SAVES: McMahon 5, Pacilio 3.
SHOTS: Ohio Wesleyan 55, Augustana 24.

OHIO WESLEYAN 10, OTTERBEIN 7 Feb. 25 at Selby Stadium

HOME OF THE BISHOPS

The Battling Bishop men's lacrosse team plays its home games at Selby Stadium, located on South Henry Street on the eastern edge of campus.

A FieldTurf artificial playing surface was installed for the 2014-15 academic year and lights were installed for the 2010-11 academic year, making Selby one of the most impressive venues among NCAA Division III institutions.

Built in 1929, Selby boasts a seating capacity of 9100. It hosted the 1988 NCAA Division III men's championship game and has been the site of numerous playoff contests.

Designed by George Gauthier, Ohio Wesleyan's Hall of Fame football coach and athletic director, and constructed by the Osborn Engineering Company (which also built the original Yankee Stadium), the complex was named after George D. Selby, who served the Ohio Wesleyan board of trustees for 24 years. His sons, Mark, Homer, Pearl, and Roger donated $100,000 of the project's $160,000 cost.

Selby Stadium recently underwent a restoration project that included a new, 2-level press box, new bleacher seats and refurbished locker rooms. Selby also houses the George Gauthier Track, an Ameritan FP surface installed in 2006.

From 1965 through 1984, the Bishops played their home games at Roy Rike Field, also home of the soccer teams. During the spring of 1985, field maintenance at Roy Rike forced the lacrosse team to move to Selby for a year, but the relocation worked out so well it became permanent. Prior to obtaining Roy Rike Field, Ohio Wesleyan home games were played at South Field, which was located on Henry Street south of Selby Stadium, approximately where the Bishops' practice field is today.

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

The crown jewel of Ohio Wesleyan's athletic facilities is Selby Stadium, which is the home of the football, field hockey, track & field, and men's and women's lacrosse contingents.

Selby Stadium received a FieldTurf artificial playing surface for the 2014-15 academic year, lights for the 2010-11 academic year, and a video scoreboard in the spring of 2011, making the venue one of the most impressive among NCAA Division III institutions. Constructed in 1929, Selby also has received a new, fully-enclosed 2-level press box, new bleacher seats, and refurbished locker rooms in recent years. The facility, which seats 9100 and is the fourth-largest college-owned field in NCAA Division III, was the site of the 1988 Division III men's lacrosse championship game.

Selby also houses the George Gauthier Track, an Ameritan FP surface installed for the 2006-07 academic year. The site of 20 of the first 31 North Coast Athletic Conference outdoor track & field championships, Selby is believed to be the oldest facility in the nation constructed to Olympic specifications and remaining in its original configuration. Selby Stadium and the Gauthier Track hosted the NCAA Division III outdoor track & field championships in 2011 and 2014.

Across campus, the Jay Martin Soccer Complex hosts soccer, primarily under the lights. Widely regarded as one of the Midwest's finest facilities for the sport, the Jay Martin Soccer Complex's Roy Rike Field was the site of the NCAA Division III semifinals and championship game for men in 1990 and 1998 and for women in 2001.

The centerpiece of Ohio Wesleyan's athletic facilities is the Branch Rickey Physical Education Center, prized for both its size and versatility. The Richard Gordon Field House floor was resurfaced in November 2008, and the track was refinished with a state-of-the-art encapsulated surface in December 2008. Gordon Field House hosted the first 9 NCAC indoor track & field championships. Indoor practice for fall and spring sports can be handled there as well: floor space is larger than a football field, accommodating 4 courts for tennis, basketball and volleyball.

Branch Rickey Arena, seating 1450, hosts varsity basketball and volleyball contests. Also in the Center are 5 handball/racquetball courts, a squash court, offices, locker rooms and lounges.

Offices and locker rooms also are part of Edwards Gymnasium, which is connected by tunnel to the Rickey Center. Remodeling in Edwards has recently included an expanded strength facility.

The men's and women's swimming teams compete in the Meek Aquatics and Recreation Center, a 10-lane, geothermally heated facility that opened in October 2010.

Softball is played at Margaret Sagan Field, which opened during the 2008 season. Baseball is played at Littick Field, site of the 2003 NCAA Division III Mideast Regional.

Tennis is played at the Luttinger Family Tennis Center, a complex of 6 outdoor courts that opened in the fall of 2010, and 6 outdoor courts across the street where the 1978 NCAA Division III championships were held.

The cross country teams run home meets at nearby Liberty Park. The men's golf team plays home tournaments at Oakhaven Golf Club, north of Delaware, and the women's golf team plays home tournaments at Mill Creek Golf Club in Ostrander, west of Delaware.
