WHY BATTLING BISHOPS?

The nickname “The Battling Bishops” dates to 1925; before then Ohio Wesleyan University’s teams were simply known as “The Red and Black,” or sometimes as “The Methodists.” Ohio Wesleyan is affiliated with the United Methodist Church, and long has produced many of its bishops.

By April, 1925, according to that issue of the Alumni Magazine, the present name had finally been derived. “Ohio sports writers have been at a loss,” the magazine reported. “There are countless colleges throughout the country claiming red and black as their colors, and 14 Methodist colleges in Ohio alone.” Pi Delta Epsilon journalism fraternity therefore sponsored a contest, and the winning nickname, “The Battling Bishops,” was “placed before the sports writers of the state as the teams’ official title.” Senior Harold Thomas of Lima submitted the winning entry.

The new nickname must have provided inspiration. The 1925 football team, under George Gauthier, “The Little Giant,” went 7-1-1. Its only loss came to Ohio State by a 10-3 score, and it tied Syracuse, 3-3, en route to winning the Ohio Conference championship.

Ohio Wesleyan University is a charter member of the North Coast Athletic Conference, which began competition in the 1984-85 academic year. Other charter members are Allegheny College, Case Western Reserve University, Denison University, Kenyon College, Oberlin College and the College of Wooster. Wittenberg University joined the NCAC in 1988, Earlham College joined in 1988 and remains an affiliate member in field hockey, Wabash College joined in 1998, DePauw University joined in 2010, and John Carroll University joined in 2024 and begins competition in the 2025-26 academic year.

The NCAC's 9 members believe academic and athletic excellence can co-exist, with no undue overemphasis on athletics. They also believe the principle of balance is important in athletic programs at the Division III level, with no "major" or "minor" sports in comparison with any other, but all equally worthwhile. Equity for both men's and women's sports is a founding and standard principle. The NCAC's 23 championship sports includes 11 for men and 12 for women, the latter figure among the most offered by any Division III conference. When at least 5 Conference institutions sponsor a varsity sport, the NCAC conducts championship play and honors the champion.

NCAC teams have won 74 NCAA Division III championships during the conference's 41 years of competition.

Ohio Wesleyan President Rock Jones and Denison President Dale Knobel display the 2008-09 NCAC All-Sports Trophy. Ohio Wesleyan and Denison finished in a dead heat in the 2008-09 all-sports race, marking the first all-sports tie in conference history.

On Saturday, Dec. 6, 1913, Ohio Wesleyan University and Ohio State University took part in what was reported as “the first game of intercollegiate soccer ever played on Ohio soil.”

Ohio Wesleyan won the game, defeating the Buckeyes by a score of 1-0 on a goal by Robert Dunlap. Ohio State returned the favor by posting a 2-1 victory the following Saturday in Columbus.

Led by captain Sydney Harris, a native of England, Ohio Wesleyan went unbeaten during the 1914 season and claimed the state soccer championship.

Harris left Ohio Wesleyan early in 1915 to enlist in the English army, but the Red and Black didn't lose a step, again going unbeaten that fall.

Ohio Wesleyan defeated Oberlin and Ohio State in its first 2 games of the 1916 season, but the Red and Black fell to Ohio State by a 2-1 count on Dec. 9 in Columbus.

That game would turn out to be the last varsity competition for the Ohio Wesleyan men's soccer team for nearly 40 years.

Frederick W. Dixon, the athletics director and coach who had instituted the soccer program, left Ohio Wesleyan after the 1916-17 academic year, and with World War I ongoing, colleges around the country saw more and more men enlisting in the armed forces. Ohio Wesleyan was no exception, with The Transcript reporting that “before military maneuvers commenced, forty had reported for practice, but...the squad had been reduced almost to a fourth of the original number.”

The team was unable to schedule any games during the 1917 season, and it wasn't until the 1953 season, when the Bishops competed as a club, that intercollegiate soccer again would be played at Ohio Wesleyan.

The 1913 Ohio Wesleyan men's soccer team took part in the first intercollegiate soccer game played in Ohio.

Frederick W. Dixon

Ohio Wesleyan defeats Ohio State by a 3-2 score on Nov. 18, 1916, at Edwards Field.

FRED MYERS INVITATIONAL

The annual Fred Myers Invitational honors the self-styled “grandfather” of Ohio soccer coaches, who died of a heart attack in 1977. Myers coached the Battling Bishop soccer team from 1957-76, compiling a 133-82-21 record. Eight of his last 14 teams competed in the NCAA playoffs.

Myers led the 1963 Bishops to the NCAA Mideast College Division championship, as far as the playoffs then progressed. His 1975 squad placed third in the NCAA Division III playoffs, then the highest finish ever for any Ohio Wesleyan team. In 8 years of Ohio Athletic Conference competition, Myers' squads won 4 titles and twice finished in second place. Myers was named Ohio Coach of the Year in 1971 and 1973.

As Bucky Stultz, Myers' first All-America soccer player, would note at his mentor's memorial service, “He had a rare talent. He would quietly plant in a young person's mind the seed of an idea or plan. His cultivating was done so subtly, it was usually several years before that seed would blossom. Then the realization would come: It was Fred Myers who added the spark, the vitality, that means so much in all our lives.”

The tournament's Most Valuable Player receives the Dick Gauthier Award, honoring one of Ohio Wesleyan's greatest fans. Son of the legendary George Gauthier, Ohio Wesleyan's Hall of Fame football coach, Dick Gauthier was a leader in campus-community relations.
